

I have only been on the no call list for a short time and our home life has already improved. We used to received two or more per day and the calls have decreased to only a few a month now. I do not want more calls, please keep this ruling.